

MFDS Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. Dead tracts in dentine are caused by:

- A) Secondary caries
- B) Pulp necrosis
- C) Degeneration of odontoblast processes
- D) Sclerosis of tubules

2. The 'rule of twos' in endodontics refers to:

- A) Canals should be cleaned in two stages
- B) Working length to be confirmed with two radiographs
- C) Use two rotary files minimum
- D) Two-appointment protocol for necrotic teeth

3. Leukaemia may present in the oral cavity with:

- A) Enamel hypoplasia
- B) Gingival hyperplasia due to leukaemic infiltration
- C) Bifid uvula
- D) Tori mandibulares

4. Ranula is a mucocele arising from which gland?

- A) Parotid gland
- B) Sublingual gland
- C) Submandibular gland
- D) Minor salivary glands

Answers: 1-C 2-B 3-B 4-B

For More MFDS Questions and Answers FREE, MFDS Online Prep Training, MFDS Exam, MFDS Study Guide, MFDS Flashcards, MFDS Quizzes visit:

MFDS Practice Test