

MJDF Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What does 'NNT of 10' mean clinically?

- A) Ten patients must be treated to prevent one additional adverse outcome — the smaller the NNT, the more effective the treatment
- B) Ten treatments are needed per patient
- C) The treatment has a 10% success rate
- D) Ten trials are needed to confirm the result

2. What is the most common jaw cyst overall?

- A) Radicular cyst (periapical cyst)
- B) Dentigerous cyst
- C) Odontogenic keratocyst
- D) Nasopalatine duct cyst

3. What is the embryological origin of enamel?

- A) Oral ectoderm (dental lamina and enamel organ)
- B) Neural crest cells
- C) Mesoderm
- D) Endoderm

4. What is 'specificity' of a diagnostic test?

- A) The proportion of disease-free people who correctly test negative —  $TN/(TN+FP)$  — the test's ability to exclude disease
- B) Proportion of true positives among sick people
- C) Same as sensitivity
- D) The positive predictive value

Answers: 1-A 2-A 3-A 4-A

For More MJDF Questions and Answers FREE, MJDF Online Prep Training, MJDF Exam, MJDF Study Guide, MJDF Flashcards, MJDF Quizzes visit:

MJDF Practice Test