

MRO Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What does a verified negative result mean?

- A) No prescription was provided
- B) Lab failed to analyze sample
- C) No drugs detected and specimen was valid
- D) Test result was inconclusive

2. Why is specimen validity testing performed?

- A) To test for all diseases
- B) To save processing time
- C) To ensure specimen integrity
- D) To skip confirmatory testing

3. What is the chain of custody in drug testing?

- A) A lab technician's checklist
- B) A report on test pricing
- C) Documentation tracking specimen handling
- D) A medical history form

4. What does a 'negative-dilute' result indicate?

- A) High drug concentration
- B) Invalid sample
- C) Diluted sample with no drugs
- D) Positive with interference

Answers: 1-C 2-C 3-C 4-C

For More MRO Questions and Answers FREE, MRO Online Prep Training,
MRO Exam, MRO Study Guide, MRO Flashcards, MRO Quizzes visit:

MRO Practice Test