

Music & Audio Advice Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. Trimming is a technique to:

- A) Pitch resolution should be reduced.
- B) Remove the white space between the records.
- C) Remove any unnecessary noise.
- D) Analog audio should be converted to digital format.

2. What is phase cancellation in audio?

- A) When two identical signals with opposite polarity combine and reduce in level
- B) When a microphone picks up sound from behind its diaphragm
- C) When high frequencies are absorbed by acoustic treatment
- D) When feedback occurs between a speaker and microphone

3. What is 'look-ahead' in a digital limiter?

- A) A brief delay that lets the limiter analyze incoming peaks before they arrive, enabling transparent gain reduction
- B) A feature that predicts future audio content using AI
- C) A setting that extends the release time automatically
- D) A mode that adjusts the threshold based on the next song in a playlist

4. What is a 'spec deal' in music production?

- A) Working for free upfront in exchange for a percentage of future royalties
- B) A contract that specifies exact studio hours
- C) A deal where the label pays all production costs
- D) An agreement to produce only one genre

Answers: 1-B 2-A 3-A 4-A

For More Music & Audio Advice Questions and Answers FREE, Music & Audio Advice Online Prep Training, Music & Audio Advice Exam, Music & Audio Advice Study Guide, Music & Audio Advice Flashcards, Music & Audio Advice Quizzes visit:

Music & Audio Advice Practice Test