

NCAS Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What is a community assessment's main objective?

- A) assessing the financial capabilities of neighborhood associations.
- B) encouraging community members to use healthcare services.
- C) determining each person's specific health issues within the community.
- D) recognizing a community's assets and needs.

2. How does one go about starting a community assessment?

- A) Establishing a time and financial budget for the assessment process
- B) Selecting locals who may be willing to give their perspectives
- C) describing the information required and locating potential sources
- D) defining the community and establishing its limits or specifications

3. Which of these statements about a group is most accurate?

- A) People who honor one another's viewpoints
- B) People who frequently communicate face-to-face
- C) Individuals that reside in the same geographic region
- D) Individuals who belong to the same community of phenomenology

4. Which of the following best describes what a community is?

- A) Individuals that share at least one demographic trait
- B) Individuals who share a common identity or feeling of belonging
- C) People came together to work on a certain issue.
- D) People that live in a specific location but have no limits

Answers: 1-D 2-D 3-B 4-B

For More NCAS Questions and Answers FREE, NCAS Online Prep Training, NCAS Exam, NCAS Study Guide, NCAS Flashcards, NCAS Quizzes visit:

NCAS Practice Test