

NCG Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. When can a guardianship be terminated?

- A) At the guardian's request
- B) Automatically after one year
- C) By the court upon review
- D) By a family member's decision

2. What happens during a guardianship hearing?

- A) The guardian is automatically approved
- B) Judge appoints a family member by default
- C) The court determines incapacity and need
- D) Only lawyers are allowed to speak

3. How does due diligence apply to case analysis?

- A) Due diligence is optional
- B) Thorough investigation and verification of all relevant facts and circumstances
- C) Due diligence only applies to corporate transactions
- D) A cursory review is sufficient

4. Why is recordkeeping important in guardianship?

- A) So records can be destroyed later
- B) To keep information secret
- C) To reduce workload
- D) To provide transparency and accountability

Answers: 1-C 2-C 3-B 4-D

For More NCG Questions and Answers FREE, NCG Online Prep Training,
NCG Exam, NCG Study Guide, NCG Flashcards, NCG Quizzes visit:

NCG Practice Test