

NMC OSCE - Nursing and Midwifery Council OSCE Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What does NEWS2 stand for?

- A) National Early Warning Score 2
- B) Nursing Emergency Warning System 2
- C) National Emergency Warning Score 2
- D) Nurse Early Warning Signs 2

2. Which statement about heparin is correct?

- A) Both unfractionated and low molecular weight heparin have the same monitoring requirements
- B) Unfractionated heparin requires APTT monitoring; LMWH generally does not require routine monitoring
- C) LMWH requires daily INR checks
- D) Heparin can be given orally in emergency situations

3. What does the term 'source isolation' mean?

- A) Isolating the source of an infection on a different ward
- B) Placing a patient with an infectious condition in a single room to prevent spread to others
- C) Removing a patient from the hospital entirely
- D) Isolating staff who have been exposed to infection

4. What is a Safeguarding Adults Review (SAR)?

- A) A review conducted when a vulnerable adult dies or suffers serious harm linked to abuse
- B) A routine audit of safeguarding training records
- C) An annual inspection by the Care Quality Commission
- D) A meeting held whenever a safeguarding referral is made

Answers: 1-A 2-B 3-B 4-A

For More NMC OSCE - Nursing and Midwifery Council OSCE Questions and Answers FREE, NMC OSCE - Nursing and Midwifery Council OSCE Online Prep Training, NMC OSCE - Nursing and Midwifery Council OSCE Exam, NMC OSCE - Nursing and Midwifery Council OSCE Study Guide, NMC OSCE - Nursing and Midwifery Council OSCE Flashcards, NMC OSCE - Nursing and Midwifery Council OSCE Quizzes visit:

NMC OSCE - Nursing and Midwifery Council OSCE Practice Test