

NNP Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. Hydrogen ions and Potassium.

- A) Distal convoluted tubule secrete
- B) Pkd
- C) Aldosterone excretes
- D) Alkalosis

2. $>1.5$ mg/dL or increase $>0.2$ mg/dL/day

- A) Creatinine dysfunction level
- B) Avg gfr for preterm  $<34$  weeks
- C) Hfov parameters decrease  $co_2$
- D) Ino age usage

3. Inhaled nitric oxide (iNO) is used in neonates primarily to:

- A) Increase systemic blood pressure
- B) Selectively dilate pulmonary vasculature
- C) Decrease cardiac output
- D) Treat bronchopulmonary dysplasia directly

4. Angiotensin II levels to rise or intravascular volume to decrease.

- A) Pkd is an what genetic
- B) Thirst is stimulated
- C) Bun is conserved
- D) ADH is released

Answers: 1-C 2-A 3-B 4-D

For More NNP Questions and Answers FREE, NNP Online Prep Training,
NNP Exam, NNP Study Guide, NNP Flashcards, NNP Quizzes visit:

NNP Practice Test