

NPA Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. Which equipment is essential for phlebotomy?

- A) Vacuum tubes
- B) Tourniquet
- C) Needles and syringes
- D) Gloves and antiseptic

2. How should contaminated equipment be cleaned?

- A) Using an approved disinfectant solution
- B) Rinse with water only
- C) Wipe with a dry cloth
- D) Use a mild soap solution

3. How should a phlebotomist handle a nervous patient?

- A) By rushing the procedure to reduce discomfort.
- B) By providing reassurance and explaining the procedure
- C) By avoiding eye contact to minimize stress.
- D) By performing the procedure in silence.

4. What should be done if a blood specimen is clotted?

- A) Discard the specimen immediately
- B) Refrigerate it before re-collecting
- C) Test the sample anyway
- D) Add more blood to the specimen

Answers: 1-C 2-A 3-B 4-B

For More NPA Questions and Answers FREE, NPA Online Prep Training,
NPA Exam, NPA Study Guide, NPA Flashcards, NPA Quizzes visit:

NPA Practice Test