

NSE Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What does CVSS stand for?

- A) Common Vulnerability Security Standard
- B) Critical Vulnerability Score System
- C) Common Vulnerability Scoring System
- D) Computer Virus Severity Scale

2. What is defense in depth?

- A) Having a single firewall
- B) One-time authentication
- C) Multiple overlapping security mechanisms
- D) No user restrictions

3. What is post-incident analysis?

- A) Legal compliance
- B) Root cause identification
- C) Disabling security
- D) User survey

4. What is zero-day vulnerability?

- A) A vulnerability that is 0 bytes in size.
- B) A vulnerability known by the vendor for over a year.
- C) A vulnerability discovered and patched immediately.
- D) A vulnerability not yet known to the vendor or public

Answers: 1-C 2-C 3-B 4-D

For More NSE Questions and Answers FREE, NSE Online Prep Training,
NSE Exam, NSE Study Guide, NSE Flashcards, NSE Quizzes visit:

NSE Practice Test