

NSF Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. Which of the following best describes the NSF Vocabulary Bee?

- A) A competition focused on using words correctly in sentences and understanding meanings
- B) A foreign language translation contest
- C) A creative writing competition
- D) A debate event judged on persuasion

2. How does NSF typically recruit new volunteers for its chapters?

- A) Through paid job advertisements in newspapers only
- B) Through community outreach at cultural events, word of mouth, and its website
- C) By requiring all past competition participants to volunteer
- D) Through government-mandated community service assignments

3. What role do NSF volunteers play during the actual competition day?

- A) They only observe and take photographs
- B) They serve as judges, timekeepers, registration staff, and proctors
- C) They compete alongside the students
- D) They are required to remain off-site

4. Which subject area is NOT one of the main NSF competition categories?

- A) Spelling
- B) Vocabulary
- C) Physical Education
- D) Mathematics

Answers: 1-A 2-B 3-B 4-C

For More NSF Questions and Answers FREE, NSF Online Prep Training,
NSF Exam, NSF Study Guide, NSF Flashcards, NSF Quizzes visit:

NSF Practice Test