

Neurologists Exam Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. Riluzole's mechanism of action in ALS involves:

- A) Inhibition of glutamate release and blockade of sodium channels
- B) Dopamine receptor agonism
- C) Acetylcholinesterase inhibition
- D) GABA-A potentiation

2. Mirror therapy for phantom limb pain or hemiplegia works by:

- A) Creating a visual illusion of normal limb movement to modulate cortical representation
- B) Reflecting infrared light to stimulate peripheral nerves
- C) Providing proprioceptive feedback via vibration
- D) Cooling the contralateral limb to reduce spasm

3. When should clinical assessment & patient care be conducted in Neurologists?

- A) At regular intervals and whenever significant changes occur
- B) Only when problems are identified
- C) Once during initial setup only
- D) Only when required by external auditors

4. What is the PRIMARY purpose of documentation & health records in Neurologists?

- A) To provide accurate, accessible information for decision-making and compliance
- B) To create paperwork for filing purposes
- C) To satisfy audit requirements only
- D) To limit access to information

Answers: 1-A 2-A 3-A 4-A

For More Neurologists Exam Questions and Answers FREE, Neurologists Exam Online Prep Training, Neurologists Exam Exam, Neurologists Exam Study Guide, Neurologists Exam Flashcards, Neurologists Exam Quizzes visit:

Neurologists Exam Practice Test