

ORE Part 1 - Overseas Registration Examination Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What is 'amelogenesis imperfecta'?

- A) A hereditary condition affecting enamel formation causing hypoplasia, hypomineralisation, or hypomaturation — teeth affected throughout the dentition in both dentitions
- B) A condition caused by fluoride excess only
- C) A form of dentine dysplasia
- D) Enamel dissolution caused by acid erosion

2. What is the 'contact area' of a tooth?

- A) The area where adjacent teeth contact each other proximally in the arch
- B) The area of maximum occlusal contact
- C) The part of the tooth in contact with the tongue
- D) The area of gingival attachment

3. What is 'mutually protected occlusion'?

- A) An occlusal scheme where posterior teeth protect anterior teeth in maximum intercuspation, and anterior teeth protect posterior teeth during excursive movements
- B) An occlusion where all teeth share equal occlusal loading
- C) An occlusion requiring no restorative intervention
- D) An occlusal scheme used only for complete dentures

4. What is the purpose of the 'curve of Spee'?

- A) A naturally occurring anteroposterior curve of the occlusal plane facilitating efficient chewing and distributing occlusal forces
- B) A measurement of overjet
- C) A classification of malocclusion severity
- D) A measure of curve in the condylar path

Answers: 1-A 2-A 3-A 4-A

For More ORE Part 1 - Overseas Registration Examination Questions and Answers FREE, ORE Part 1 - Overseas Registration Examination Online Prep Training, ORE Part 1 - Overseas Registration Examination Exam, ORE Part 1 - Overseas Registration Examination Study Guide, ORE Part 1 - Overseas Registration Examination Flashcards, ORE Part 1 - Overseas Registration Examination Quizzes visit:

ORE Part 1 - Overseas Registration Examination Practice Test

