

OSAT Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. Which learning theory emphasizes the importance of scaffolding in student instruction?

- A) Behaviorism
- B) Constructivism
- C) Cognitivism
- D) Humanism

2. What is the primary purpose of formative assessment?

- A) To assign final grades
- B) To monitor student progress during instruction
- C) To compare students to national standards
- D) To determine promotion to the next grade

3. Which strategy is most effective for managing classroom behavior?

- A) Punishing negative behavior immediately
- B) Establishing clear expectations and routines
- C) Ignoring all disruptive behavior
- D) Using the same consequences for all students

4. What does differentiated instruction primarily address?

- A) Teaching only gifted students
- B) Using the same methods for all learners
- C) Varying instruction to meet diverse learning needs
- D) Focusing solely on standardized test preparation

Answers: 1-B 2-B 3-B 4-C

For More OSAT Questions and Answers FREE, OSAT Online Prep Training, OSAT Exam, OSAT Study Guide, OSAT Flashcards, OSAT Quizzes visit:

OSAT Practice Test