

Ohio Assessments for Educators Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What is formative assessment?

- A) Ongoing assessment during instruction to monitor learning and provide feedback to adjust teaching
- B) A final exam at the end of a course
- C) A standardized state test
- D) A psychological evaluation of students

2. What is the purpose of a rubric?

- A) A scoring guide that defines criteria and performance levels for evaluating student work consistently and transparently
- B) A type of eraser for grading
- C) A student behavior contract
- D) A lesson plan template

3. What is differentiated instruction?

- A) Tailoring instruction to meet individual learners' needs through varied content, process, product, and learning environment
- B) Teaching the same lesson the same way to all students
- C) Only working with gifted students
- D) Separating students by ability into different schools

4. What is project-based learning (PBL)?

- A) An instructional approach where students learn by actively investigating real-world problems or challenges over an extended period
- B) Assigning art projects as homework
- C) Building physical models of textbook content
- D) Only doing science experiments

Answers: 1-A 2-A 3-A 4-A

For More Ohio Assessments for Educators Questions and Answers FREE, Ohio Assessments for Educators Online Prep Training, Ohio Assessments for Educators Exam, Ohio Assessments for Educators Study Guide, Ohio Assessments for Educators Flashcards, Ohio Assessments for Educators Quizzes visit:

Ohio Assessments for Educators Practice Test