

Parkinson's Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. A _____ is Parkinson's disease.

- A) Progressive Brain Disorder
- B) Neurological Failure
- C) Autoimmune Disease
- D) Hereditary Dysfunction

2. The Hoehn and Yahr scale is used to assess:

- A) Disease severity and progression
- B) Cognitive function
- C) Medication response
- D) Tremor frequency

3. The typical age of Parkinson's onset is around

- A) 30
- B) 40
- C) 60
- D) 70

4. Camptocormia in Parkinson's disease refers to:

- A) Severe forward flexion of the trunk
- B) Lateral trunk lean to one side
- C) Neck flexion causing chin-on-chest deformity
- D) Posterior trunk extension

Answers: 1-A 2-A 3-C 4-A

For More Parkinson's Questions and Answers FREE, Parkinson's Online Prep Training, Parkinson's Exam, Parkinson's Study Guide, Parkinson's Flashcards, Parkinson's Quizzes visit:

Parkinson's Practice Test