

Professional Pet Boarding Certification Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. Why is proper ventilation critical in a pet boarding facility?

- A) It primarily reduces utility costs
- B) It removes airborne pathogens, ammonia, and odors to maintain animal health
- C) It is only required by state law in some regions
- D) It is only needed in outdoor areas

2. What is the safest temperature range for indoor kennel runs housing dogs?

- A) 50–60°F (10–15°C)
- B) 65–75°F (18–24°C)
- C) 80–90°F (27–32°C)
- D) Above 90°F (32°C)

3. What is the correct procedure for bedding management in boarding kennels?

- A) Reuse bedding across multiple animals without washing to preserve familiar scent
- B) Wash and disinfect bedding between each animal and replace if soiled
- C) Replace bedding only once per week
- D) Use only disposable paper as bedding to save time

4. How often should communal dog play areas be sanitized in a boarding facility?

- A) Once per week
- B) Once per day
- C) Between each group of dogs using the space
- D) Only when visibly soiled

Answers: 1-B 2-B 3-B 4-C

For More Professional Pet Boarding Certification Questions and Answers FREE, Professional Pet Boarding Certification Online Prep Training, Professional Pet Boarding Certification Exam, Professional Pet Boarding Certification Study Guide, Professional Pet Boarding Certification Flashcards, Professional Pet Boarding Certification Quizzes visit:

Professional Pet Boarding Certification Practice Test