

Psychology Degree Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. Who is considered the father of psychoanalysis?

- A) Carl Jung
- B) Sigmund Freud
- C) B.F. Skinner
- D) Ivan Pavlov

2. What does the term "classical conditioning" refer to?

- A) Learning through observation
- B) Learning through reinforcement
- C) Learning through association
- D) Learning through punishment

3. Which part of the brain is primarily responsible for memory formation?

- A) Cerebellum
- B) Hippocampus
- C) Amygdala
- D) Prefrontal cortex

4. What is the difference between sensation and perception?

- A) They are the same thing
- B) Sensation is physical, perception is psychological interpretation
- C) Perception comes before sensation
- D) Sensation is learned, perception is innate

Answers: 1-B 2-C 3-B 4-B

For More Psychology Degree Questions and Answers FREE, Psychology Degree Online Prep Training, Psychology Degree Exam, Psychology Degree Study Guide, Psychology Degree Flashcards, Psychology Degree Quizzes visit:

Psychology Degree Practice Test

Practice Test Geeks © All Rights Reserved