

QMAP Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What does QMAP stand for in healthcare?

- A) Qualified Medication Administration Person
- B) Quality Medical Assessment Program
- C) Quick Medical Assistance Protocol
- D) Qualified Medical Assistance Provider

2. What is the primary responsibility of a QMAP?

- A) Diagnosing medical conditions
- B) Administering medications to residents in care facilities
- C) Performing surgical procedures
- D) Prescribing medications

3. Which of the following is a requirement for QMAP certification?

- A) Medical degree
- B) Nursing license
- C) Completion of approved training program and competency testing
- D) Pharmacy degree

4. What is the most important principle when administering medications as a QMAP?

- A) Speed of administration
- B) Following the five rights of medication administration
- C) Cost-effectiveness
- D) Patient preference

Answers: 1-A 2-B 3-C 4-B

For More QMAP Questions and Answers FREE, QMAP Online Prep Training, QMAP Exam, QMAP Study Guide, QMAP Flashcards, QMAP Quizzes visit:

QMAP Practice Test