

SAA Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What is a profile in Salesforce?

- A) A profile defines access to reports and dashboards.
- B) A profile determines which records a user can view and edit.
- C) A profile is used to define all user permissions, including access to fields and objects.
- D) A profile manages security settings across the organization.

2. What is data modeling in Salesforce?

- A) Creating user interfaces for applications.
- B) Defining the structure, storage, and relationships of data in Salesforce.
- C) Building APIs for data integration.
- D) Managing Salesforce app deployments.

3. What is a sharing rule in Salesforce?

- A) A rule that automatically assigns records to users.
- B) A rule that defines how records are shared with users based on certain criteria.
- C) A rule for setting up data encryption.
- D) A rule for managing user logins and access.

4. What is a permission set in Salesforce?

- A) A permission set grants users access to specific fields.
- B) A permission set allows for more granular control over user access, giving additional permissions beyond their profile.
- C) A permission set manages user roles and data access.
- D) A permission set automatically assigns tasks to users.

Answers: 1-C 2-B 3-B 4-B

For More SAA Questions and Answers FREE, SAA Online Prep Training,
SAA Exam, SAA Study Guide, SAA Flashcards, SAA Quizzes visit:

SAA Practice Test