

STS Safety Trained Supervisor Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What does STS stand for in workplace safety?

- A) Safety Trained Supervisor
- B) Site Training Specialist
- C) Safety Technical Systems
- D) Standard Training Supervisor

2. What is the primary responsibility of a Safety Trained Supervisor?

- A) Equipment maintenance only
- B) Ensuring workplace safety compliance and training workers
- C) Financial management
- D) Customer service

3. Which OSHA standard is most relevant to construction safety supervision?

- A) 29 CFR 1910 (General Industry)
- B) 29 CFR 1926 (Construction Industry)
- C) 29 CFR 1915 (Shipyard Employment)
- D) 29 CFR 1928 (Agriculture)

4. What is required when an STS identifies a safety hazard?

- A) Wait until the end of the shift to report
- B) Take immediate corrective action and document the incident
- C) Ignore minor hazards
- D) Only report to management

Answers: 1-A 2-B 3-B 4-B

For More STS Safety Trained Supervisor Questions and Answers FREE, STS Safety Trained Supervisor Online Prep Training, STS Safety Trained Supervisor Exam, STS Safety Trained Supervisor Study Guide, STS Safety Trained Supervisor Flashcards, STS Safety Trained Supervisor Quizzes visit:

STS Safety Trained Supervisor Practice Test

Practice Test Geeks © All Rights Reserved