

Scala Language Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What type of programming language is Scala?

- A) Purely functional
- B) Purely object-oriented
- C) Multi-paradigm (object-oriented and functional)
- D) Procedural only

2. Scala runs on which platform?

- A) .NET Framework only
- B) Java Virtual Machine (JVM)
- C) Native machine code only
- D) Python interpreter

3. How do you declare an immutable variable in Scala?

- A) `var x = 5`
- B) `val x = 5`
- C) `let x = 5`
- D) `const x = 5`

4. What is a case class in Scala?

- A) A class that can only be used in switch statements
- B) A special class that provides pattern matching and immutability features
- C) A class with only lowercase letters
- D) An abstract class

Answers: 1-C 2-B 3-B 4-B

For More Scala Language Questions and Answers FREE, Scala Language Online Prep Training, Scala Language Exam, Scala Language Study Guide, Scala Language Flashcards, Scala Language Quizzes visit:

Scala Language Practice Test

Practice Test Geeks © All Rights Reserved