

Sign Language Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What does ASL stand for?

- A) American Sign Language
- B) Advanced Sign Learning
- C) Automatic Sign Language
- D) Alternative Sign Logic

2. Which hand is typically used as the dominant hand in sign language?

- A) Always the right hand
- B) Always the left hand
- C) The individual's natural dominant hand
- D) Both hands equally

3. What are the five parameters of ASL signs?

- A) Handshape, location, movement, palm orientation, and facial expression
- B) Speed, direction, size, color, and shape
- C) Beginning, middle, end, pause, and repeat
- D) Finger, wrist, arm, shoulder, and head

4. What is fingerspelling in ASL?

- A) A type of sign language dance
- B) Using hand positions to represent letters of the alphabet
- C) A method of counting in sign language
- D) A way to sign numbers

Answers: 1-A 2-C 3-A 4-B

For More Sign Language Questions and Answers FREE, Sign Language Online Prep Training, Sign Language Exam, Sign Language Study Guide, Sign Language Flashcards, Sign Language Quizzes visit:

Sign Language Practice Test

Practice Test Geeks © All Rights Reserved