

TTC Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. What does a thorough trauma history include?

- A) A record of only the recent trauma incident.
- B) A comprehensive record of all physical injuries.
- C) An understanding of previous traumatic experiences and medical history.
- D) A summary of the patient's family medical history.

2. What is the primary goal of crisis intervention?

- A) To prevent the individual from leaving the treatment facility.
- B) To provide long-term therapy.
- C) To stabilize the individual and prevent further harm.
- D) To immediately begin medication management.

3. What is the first principle of trauma-informed care?

- A) Fostering open communication.
- B) Establishing trust and safety.
- C) Providing medication promptly.
- D) Limiting patient interaction.

4. How can you determine if an individual is in crisis?

- A) When the individual refuses treatment.
- B) When the individual is experiencing emotional instability or irrational behavior.
- C) When the individual is calm and collected.
- D) When the individual is avoiding treatment.

Answers: 1-B 2-C 3-B 4-B

For More TTC Questions and Answers FREE, TTC Online Prep Training,
TTC Exam, TTC Study Guide, TTC Flashcards, TTC Quizzes visit:

TTC Practice Test