

UMAT Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. Find the odd one out:

- A) ▲▼
- B) ○○
- C) ▲▲
- D) □□

2. The 'false dichotomy' fallacy involves:

- A) Providing too many options
- B) Presenting only two choices when other options exist
- C) Making a statement that contradicts itself
- D) Using emotional language to persuade

3. The phrase 'straw man fallacy' refers to:

- A) Arguing with weak evidence
- B) Misrepresenting an opponent's argument to make it easier to attack
- C) Using emotional appeals in an argument
- D) Assuming the conclusion within the premise

4. Which of the following is an inductive argument?

- A) If all patients with symptom X have disease Y, and this patient has symptom X, then they have disease Y
- B) Every patient we have treated with this drug recovered; therefore the drug is likely effective
- C) Either the patient has disease A or disease B; they don't have disease A; so they have disease B
- D) If the test is positive, the patient must be treated immediately

Answers: 1-C 2-B 3-B 4-B

For More UMAT Questions and Answers FREE, UMAT Online Prep Training,
UMAT Exam, UMAT Study Guide, UMAT Flashcards, UMAT Quizzes visit:

UMAT Practice Test