

UST Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. How does a sump help maintain system safety?

- A) They increase tank volume
- B) They collect and contain leaks
- C) They heat the tank
- D) They distribute power

2. What must operators do if a release is confirmed?

- A) Ignore it unless asked
- B) Seal the tank permanently
- C) Report to the state and begin cleanup
- D) Transfer fuel to another tank

3. What is the benefit of secondary containment systems?

- A) Speeds up fuel delivery
- B) Reduces insurance premiums
- C) Provides leak containment and early warning
- D) Acts as backup storage

4. Which signal may indicate a slow or hidden fuel leak?

- A) Decrease in daily sales
- B) Steady inventory losses
- C) Sudden price changes
- D) Customer complaints

Answers: 1-B 2-C 3-C 4-B

For More UST Questions and Answers FREE, UST Online Prep Training,
UST Exam, UST Study Guide, UST Flashcards, UST Quizzes visit:

UST Practice Test