

WLFI Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. How often should reporting practices be updated?

- A) Only once a decade.
- B) Whenever convenient.
- C) Regularly, to align with evolving industry standards
- D) Never, once set.

2. What indicates delamination in laminate flooring?

- A) Increased glossiness
- B) Layer separation or bubbling of the wear layer
- C) Uniform appearance
- D) Presence of dust

3. Which flooring issue may be caused by high humidity?

- A) Surface discoloration
- B) Buckling or crowning
- C) Nail pops
- D) Squeaky joints

4. Why is documentation important in inspection reports?

- A) To fill up pages.
- B) To provide entertainment value.
- C) To support conclusions and provide a factual basis
- D) To meet client demands only.

Answers: 1-C 2-B 3-B 4-C

For More WLFI Questions and Answers FREE, WLFI Online Prep Training,
WLFI Exam, WLFI Study Guide, WLFI Flashcards, WLFI Quizzes visit:

WLFI Practice Test