

Wisconsin Foundations of Reading Exam Practice Test Questions and Answers

1. Tier 3 vocabulary words are best described as:

- A) Common, everyday words learned through conversation
- B) High-frequency words found across academic subjects
- C) Low-frequency, domain-specific technical terms
- D) Words with multiple meanings across different contexts

2. What is prosody in the context of reading fluency?

- A) The speed at which a student reads words per minute
- B) The number of errors a student makes during oral reading
- C) Reading with appropriate expression, phrasing, and intonation
- D) A student's ability to decode unfamiliar words independently

3. What is the purpose of a technology needs assessment?

- A) To identify gaps between current capabilities and desired outcomes
- B) To purchase the most expensive available solution
- C) To justify the IT department's budget
- D) To replace all manual processes immediately

4. How is oral reading fluency (ORF) typically assessed?

- A) Through written vocabulary tests
- B) By counting words read correctly per minute on grade-level passages
- C) Through silent reading comprehension assessments
- D) By evaluating students' phonemic awareness skills

Answers: 1-C 2-C 3-A 4-B

For More Wisconsin Foundations of Reading Exam Questions and Answers FREE, Wisconsin Foundations of Reading Exam Online Prep Training,

Wisconsin Foundations of Reading Exam Exam, Wisconsin Foundations of Reading Exam Study Guide, Wisconsin Foundations of Reading Exam Flashcards, Wisconsin Foundations of Reading Exam Quizzes visit:

Wisconsin Foundations of Reading Exam Practice Test